A HEALTHY LIVER.

THE liver is a large gland, lying under the short ribs, on the right side. It is covered on the upper side and concave on the under, and is composed of several lobes or divisions. It is a secretory organ, and its duty is to separate from the blood. It weighs about four pounds, being the largest organ in the body. The tendency of long continued heat to derange the natural action of the liver, and ultimately to produce enlargement, hardening, torpidity, and chronic inflammation of that organ. The symptoms indicating liver disease are as follows:

A sense of fulness and weight in the right side, with some enlargement and pain, particularly when pressed; pain in one or both shoulders and under the shoulder blades; disagreeable or painful feeling when lying on the left side; yellowness of the skin, eyes, and urine; bowels irregular, loose or costive; and sickness through the day; sometimes a dry hacking cough; shortness of breath; a dry taste in the mouth; and in the morning, the urine deposits a sediment on standing; generally a low and desponding state of mind; the nervous system much disturbed; distention of the bowels; and frequently a great dread of imagined evils supposed to be impending.

We believe that no medicine offers for the cure of liver disease so safe and so efficacious a field of successful trial as our

BRISTOL'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

In the Western, Southern, and Pacific States of North America, in Canada, in Central America, in Chile, Peru, Bolivia, U.S.A., Colombia, Argentina, Venezuela, Brazil, Mexico, Australia, East India, Spain, and Portugal, they are well known and constantly used. Every month more and more persons are cured, and their success is something quite unparalleled; but it is easily ascertained. They are prepared expressly to relieve and cure all

LIVER AND BILIOUS DISEASES, constituting nearly three-quarters of all the sickness, with which our people are afflicted, and the principles of Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills are PODOPHYLLIN AND LEPIDANDRIN, both simple vegetables, but both potent for controlling the liver—cleaning it of all sluggish secretions, and invigorating it to a state of healthy and natural action.

"WHAT IS IT MADE OF?"

In the oft-repeated inquiry which comes to us from the most distant sections of the world about our MURRAY & LAMMAN'S FLORIDA WATER.

"WHAT MAKES IT SO LASTING?"

It is also a question often put to us. Of course we are not willing to make our formula known, and all such questions remain unanswered. "Ah!" says one, "I smell!"

MINONETTE AND LAVENDER: nothing else could be so delicate, yet so refreshing. Still we answer nothing, because we are older to deny our secret, it would be equally disbelieved. "No, no," says another, "I smell!"

HONEYROSE AND JASMINE: we are plain as you can be. But this also our only reply is silence—promising here, however, that our great perfume depends on our two single flowers, its breath would be poor indeed. "No, no," says a third, "I smell!"

ORANGE FLOWERS AND VIOLETS: are to my sense of smell the most delicate and yet overpowering prevailing perfume in the Florida Water. Well, well, we will not be so rude as to contradict a lady (nearly all these queries are from the ladies), but we simply wonder they do not discover the soft and delicious fragrance of

LILIES AND ROSES, or the rich perfume of the gorgeous Magnolia. But the truth is, that the many floral extracts which enter into the composition of the true

MURRAY & LAMMAN'S FLORIDA WATER, are so exactly and perfectly blended together, that it is quite impossible to detect the distinctive odour of any single flower. The effect of the combination is the most agreeable and refreshing perfume to be found anywhere. "We never get tired of it," is the longer we use it, we enjoy the more. But this is not the end of the MURRAY & LAMMAN'S FLORIDA WATER. There are others who offer for sale fluids which they call Florida Water, but they possess none of the wonderful virtues of Murray & Lamman's; and buyers should always be particular to ask for the Florida Water prepared by
